But now this conscienceless rich man, who had helped her to win on the stage, was showing his cloven hoof and demanding his "pay." Now she was to learn that the "cinema murder" she once had played, was linked with another crime—far more real, far more fateful to her. A vivid, intimate story of life and love behind the scenes. Tense with conflict and mystery and filled with absorbing episodes in England, on the sea, and on the "Great White Way" of New York.

INSPECTION OF DAIRY
HERDS DISCLOSES
GOOD CONDITION

The inspection of dairy herds is going on apace in Ogden city precincts and Weber county. Dairy Inspector John Felt of the city board of health said today:

"The district here is most remarkably free from tubercular trouble and we are finding hearty cooperation on the part of all the farmers we have visited so far in our effort to provide Ogden city with a pure milk supply. Dr. W. L. Carlson of the federal board of agriculture has been detailed to Ogden and will give all his time to cooperation with this office in the matter of herd inspection," said Mr. Felt.

Barbers' Notice

On and after Saturday, April 3rd, 1920, union barber shops will close at 8 o'clock p. m. on Saturdays, and children's haircutting will be fifty cents on Saturdays. Other prices and hours will remain the same as at present.

The American wheat farmers had lost $2,000,000,000.

Senator McKellar said Hoover was "eliminated" as a Democratic possibility, but Senator Ashurst declared he still might be nominated by the Democrats, and warned Senator McKellar against criticism which he might later wish to withdraw.

Referring to Hoover as "once the active candidate of two parties, now of only one," Senator McKellar read from Hoover's suggestion to remedy labor problems, and said he was "utterly unable" to comprehend the former food administrator's language.

Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Colorado, suggested that use of incomprehensible language qualified a candidate for both party nominations.

Senator Ashurst closed the discussion by declaring that Mr. Hoover, used "plain words," and that he was not surprised that politicians were unable to understand them.

"The people of the United States will understand them," he said.

MARGARET C. WRIGHT
DIES IN FULLERTON
CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Margaret C. Wright, wife of C. W. Wright, died at the home of her son, W. Rae Hobson, in Fullerton, California, at 1:30 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Wright had been ill for some time. Mrs. Wright was born in Logan, Utah, and had resided in Ogden for a number of years. Surviving her are her husband and the following sons and daughters: W. Rae Hobson of Fullerton, California; S. Vern Hobson, Mrs. Dot Wright of Ogden; Mrs. J. E. Sorenson and Dewey Hobson of Brigham City.

The body will be brought to Ogden and taken in charge by the Lindquist Undertaking company. Mr. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. W. Rae Hobson will accompany the body to this city and funeral announcements will be made later.

Two Wire Companies
Not to Submit Bids

Recent advice at the local forest service offices state that neither the American Steel & Wire company nor John Roebling & Sons will submit bids on wire for the fiscal year 1921. It was announced that the bids of the company, which concern telephone wire chiefly, will not be missed to any great extent, the Kahn bill, recently passed by congress, providing for enough telephone wire and equipment to serve the forest districts for a number of years.

Depot Company to Station Roadway

Superintendent H. L. Bell of the Ogden Union Railway & Depot company announced today that repairs on the roadway which serves as an approach to the depot would be made in the near future.

Because of automobile traffic over the roadway this winter, a number of deep holes have been made on the road's surface. These will be filled with gravel and rolled, he stated.

Hearts are about the only things that burning words will melt, a correspondent of ours states.

STROHEIM PICTURE BREAKS RECORDS AT THE OGDEN THEATRE

The Stroheim picture, "Blind Husbands," declared by those who have seen it at the Ogden theatre as the big wonder picture of the year, continues to attract much attention and create much comment among the motion picture patrons of the city. The theme of the story handles a great problem in an excellent manner. Stroheim wrote the play, directed its production and played the leading role himself. He is a great actor and termed the "best hated man in the world" because of his interpretation of "The Unbeliever." He also was the crown prince in some of the kaiser pictures presented during the war.

"Blind Husbands" closes its successful four-day engagement at the Ogden tonight. Tomorrow Elaine Hammerstein in "The Wonderful Game" begins a three days' engagement.

Margaret Wilson Adopts
Two Serbian Orphans

NEW YORK, March 31.—Miss Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, has "adopted" two Serbian war orphans, a boy and a girl whose father was killed in battle in 1914, according to Mme. Slavko Grouitch, wife of the Jugo-Slav minister at Washington, and director of the Serbian aid fund. The children will continue how ever, it was said, to live with their mother at Negotin, Serbia, which is near the Rumanian border.

Mme. Grouitch is now seeking other godmothers and aid for Serbian children in a tour of Texas and Oklahoma.

ATTACK ON HOOVER
LAUNCHED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Herbert Hoover's declaration that under certain circumstances he might accept the Republican presidential nomination was discussed briefly today in the senate. Senator McKellar, Democrat of Tennessee, criticized Mr. Hoover's statement on economic problems, and Senator Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, defended the former food administrator.

Republicans generally refrained from joining in the discussion, but Senator Groun of North Dakota said Mr. Hoover's statements during the war had so "charmed" congress that
